

U.S. Geological Survey 2002 - 2003 Public Lecture Series

The Pulse of the Earth: How and Why We Monitor Earthquakes

Doug Given, USGS, Pasadena
November 14 - 8pm

Are Foreshocks Mainshocks that Happened to Have Big Aftershocks?

Lucy Jones, USGS, Pasadena
March 18 - 8pm

Plumbing the Mysteries of the San Andreas Fault

Bill Ellsworth, USGS, Menlo Park
February 6 - 8pm

Do Faults Talk to Each Other?

Greg Anderson, USGS, Pasadena
June 17 - 8pm

All lectures are free and start at 8pm in Baxter Lecture Hall on Caltech campus.
Plenty of free parking is available.

For more information see <http://pasadena.wr.usgs.gov/lectures/> or call 626-583-6801.

